WASHINGTON SENTINEL.

TRI-WEEKLY. VOL. 3.

CITY OF WASHINGTON, THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 13, 1856.

PROSPECTUS

"WASHINGTON SENTINEL."

PROPOSE to publish in the city of Washington, in September, a political newspaper. unler the name of the WASHINGTON SENTI-NEL.

In doing so, it is proper I should make known the principles it will maintain, and the policy it will advocate.

It will support cordially and earnestly the principles of the Democratic party of the United States it does not propose to be the organ of any Department of the Government, except in so far as an independent maintenance of the doctrines of that party may represent its opinions and express its views.

It will not be ambitious to commend itself to the people by a blind flattery of their rulers. It will seek public a pport by the bold avowal of the sentiments which are common to the genuine Pemocracy of the Union, and by the condemnation of all such as may conflict with them, from whatever quarter they may come. It will seek to be (and it will endeavor to deserve the title) the organ of the Democratic party of the United States.

WOOD GAS.—CAUTION.

Be it known that I, the subscriber obtained letters patent in December, 1851, for an apparatus for the destructive distillation of wood, and the making therefrom of tar or pitch at pleasure, and gas; and that in the judgment of competent persons the invention of an appartus recently patented by W. D. Porter cannot be used by him or any other person without infriaging my said patent. And, further, that what is patented by said Porter rightfully belongs to me, as I expect to prove ere long before the United States Patent Office; and, further, that the use of said Porter's invention involves also a process which I am now claiming before the United States Patent Office, and which has been adjudged to be patentable to the first inventor thereof, and which said W. D. Porter has formally disclaimed, as appears upon the public records of said office, of which an official copy is hereto annexed, and also a copy of his claims.

In the National Intelligencer of the 25th instant Mr. Porter announces that he has secured by patent the "exclusive right to making gas from wood," and threatens presecution to all parties infringing his patent. I ask how this statement comports with the fart of my patent of December, 1851, and how far the threat can intimidate under such circumstances? Mr. Porter's claim is based upon a movable perforated diaphragm, and was so understood by the Patent Office, as it appears from the records of the Patent Office that his claim was at first refused as interfering with a prior patent to Robert Foulis, of Canada, for an equivalent contrivance. This claim, as given below, and in which the perforated diaphragm is the saving clause, is what Mr. Porter calls securing the "exclusive right to making gas from wood." The statement carries absurdity on its front, and is a libel on the good sense of the Patent Office will forbid every coal-kiln and charcoal manufactory in the country.

The following copies of correspondence and avasate from the records of the Patent Office will

WM. P. McCONNELL, By his attorney CHAS. G. PAGE.

The SENTINEL will maintain, as a fundamenta truth of that great party, that the States formed the Union between them by the ratification of the Constitution as a compact; by which also, they created the Federal Government, and delegated to it, the Federal Government, and delegated to it, as their common agent, the powers expressly specified in it, with an explicit reservation of all others to the States, or to their separate governments. The exercise of any powers beyond these thus delegated, is, therefore, an usurpation of the reserved authority of the States by the agent of their own creation.

The SENTINEL will uphold and defend the Union upon the basis of the rights of the States—under the Constitution—and thus by sedulously guarding the latter, it will the more effectually strengthen and perpetuate the former.

the latter, it will the more effectually strengthen and perpetuate the former.

With regard to the exercise of the powers of the Feceral Government, the Santings. will take as the principles of its action, that Congress shall exercise no power which has not been delegated by the C. ustitution, according to a strict and fair interpret tion of its language and spirit; and that it shall no seek to attain indirectly an object through the exercise of constitutional power, for the direct attainment of which it has no delegation of power. In other words, all powers exercised must be clearly grated, and all granted powers must be used for no surpose, except such as is clearly intended by the Constitution.

In respect to the internal administration of the show the true state of the ease:

UNITED STATES PATENT OFFICE,

August 25, 1854.

Sir. In reply to your letter of this date, asking "if any patent has been granted to W. D. Porter, dated 22d August, 1854, or at any other time, or to any other person or persons, securing to him or them "the exclusive right of making gas from wood," and whether any such claim was made by W. D. Porter, under his application for a patent, which letters patent were issued bearing the above date, you are informed that W. D. Porter's claims are believed to be c nfined to his apparatus; and, further, this office is not aware that a patent has been granted heretofore for the exclusive right of making gas from wood. It would, however, be unjustifiable to expect me to make an extended investigation to answer your request.

In respect to the internal administration of the Government, the Sentiner. will austain the settled policy of the Democratic party. It will labor to inculcate this cardinal doctrine of Democratic in ternal policy:—that this Government will best promote the freedom and prosperity of the people of the States, by being less ambitious to exercise power, and more anxious to preserve liberty; and by leaving to the individual States the management of all their domestic concerns—while it contents itself with guarding the confederacy from external violence, and directing the foreign policy of the country to the promotion of the common interests, and defence of the common rights, and honor of the States composing it.

The Sentiner will advocate such a progressive foreign policy as will suit itself to the exigencies, and correspond with the expanding interests of the country. That policy should be energetic and decided; but should temper firmness with liberality, and make its highest ends consist with the strictest principles of justice. The real interests of the country, upon each occasion demanding attention will be its guide in the course the Sentiner, will pursue. In respect to the internal administration of the

In testimony whereof, I. Charles Mason, Commissioner of Patents, have caused the seal of the Patent Office to be hereanto affixed [L. s.] this 25th day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and of the independence of the United States the seventy-ninth.

Our settled determination to repel interference Our settled determination to repet interference from abroad with our domestic concerns, wil prompt us to avoid it in the affairs of other coun tries, unless by their foreign or colonial policy our peace should be threatened, our security endan gered, or our interests invaded. For when the selfish interests of other nations prompt a foreign or colonial policy which infringes upon our rights, and places in the pathway of our commerce a dangerous and unfriendly rival, such a policy must be resisted by remonstrance, and, if need be, by war. The United States Patent Office—To all persons to whom these presents shall come greeting:

This is to certify that the annexed is a true copy from the records of this office of an extract from the specification of W. D. Porter's patent, issued in the twenty second day of August, eighteen hundred and fifty-four.

In testimony whereof, I, Charles Mason, Commissioner of Patents, have caused the

Our foreign policy should, indeed, be defensive, but to be properly defensive, it must sometimes be apparently aggressive. Our administration should be vigilant, watchful, and energetic. The world is full of important movements, commercial and political, deeply concerning American trade and American power. It is time we had an American foreign policy. We must have it. We cannot avoid it if we would. We have larger interests, and a greater stake in the world and its destuny, than foreign policy. We must have it. We cannot avoid it if we would. We have larger interests, and a greater stake in the world and its destuny, than every other people. We occupy the best portion of a continent, with no neighbors but a colony, and a worn-out, anarchical despotism. We are the olny people whose own land, without colonial defendencies, is washed by the two great oceans of the world. Our agricultural productions are measured and more essential to civilized life, and to human progress—our mineral and manufacturing resources more vast—our facilities and capacitive internal and foreign commerce more extended than those of any other people living under one government. A continent, to a great extent, unexplored and exhaustless in its yet hidden wealth is at our feet. European trade seeks the great East through avenues which are at our doors, or must be made through our own limits. Europe, Asia, Africa, and the isles of the sea, lying all around us, look to us as the rising power, through the agency of whose example, and ever widening and extending, though penceful influences, the bless ings of liberty, civilisation, and religion, are destined to triumph over the barbarism and superstition of the millions of the world. And shall such a people refuse to lay hold upon their destiny, and act upon the high mission to which it is called? A mission so full of hope, though so laden with responsibility, which, if properly directed, must make our confederacy the harbinger of peace to the world, as well as the peaceful arbiter of its destiny.

PROSPECTUS,—SOUTHERN CONSERvative Magazine.—When new aspirants for popular favor are announced, the public have a right to demand the grounds upon which such show of title to their patronage is made. In acknowledgment of this, we trace the customs of parties in the avowal of principles; of religious sects, in the oromulgation of creeds; and of persons in all pursuits of life, dependent upon the public for success, in their preparatory expositions of plans and purposes. The customs thus originating, though sometimes abused, are useful and proper, and should not be discarded. And when, in obedience to custom, new plans are proposed, those approving ought not to withhold their enin obedience to custom, new plans are proposed, those approving ought not to withhold their encouragement, as too many do, until they see that success is sure, for their aid may be needed to secure it. Such a foolish policy as this jeopardizes the plan they approve, and hastens its failure; it has delicated many important enterprizes, and dizes the plan they approve, and hastens its failure; it has deleated many important enterprizes, and has deprived the country of good and useful works. If a new proposition of any kind is approved by the public, the support of those approving is of right expected, their approval being solicited only in the view that their more substantial aid will not be writhheld.

BRIEF OUTLINE OF THE PLAN OF THE PROPOSED PERIODICAL.

THE SOUTHERN CONSERVATIVE MAGAZINE will occupy grounds but little cultivated by American magazinists. It is believed that a field is open for a periodical of a new and, in some respects, a high r order than has been simed at in our magazine literature. In this belief, and with such an zine literature. In this belief, and with such an aim, we announce the Southern Conservative Magezine.

The new magazine will be national and not sectional; claiming no merit by virtue of its es-tablishment in the South, but aiming at a higher tablishment in the South, but aiming at a higher usefulness and a more general acceptability. It will be Protestant, but not sectarian; opposing religious bigotry of intollerance on the one side, and unfidelity on the other—laboring in its teachings to advance a closer union between the several branches of the great family of the church.

It will be political, but liberal; owing no slavish allegiance to parties or politicians, it will advocate mersures, not men, and will labor only for the success of principles.

meisures, not men, and will labor only for the success of principles.

It will be progressive, yet sternly opposed to the reckless spirit of innovation so rife in the country—aiming to elevate and advance, not depress; to reform and improve, not to destroy; sacredly adhering to the true intent of our great republican theory, and laboring to advance it to its fullest development.

It will be truly American in tone and sentiment, but will repudiate nothing foreign, merely because but will repudiate nothing foreign, merely because so; believing that the good, the useful, and true telong not, par excellence, to any favored people, but are the common right of all.

It will be the organ of pure conservatism.

It will encourage a high-toned literature, and defend pure morals in all the social relations of life.

And it will number in its corps of regular con-tributors some of the ablest political and literary writers of the country.

The magazine will be printed on the finest puality of paper, with new type, and in a plain out superior style.

Each number will contain not less than 50 large octavo pages, made up of original articles, contributed and editorial—reviews, political and scientific essays, romances, poetry, &c.

PROSPECTUS

UNITED STATES TIMES, Weekly Newspaper to be published in Washington City.

The undersigned, expecting soon to retire from the position he has for some time held as Superintendent of the United States Census, intends to devote himself to the control and management of the REVIEW, of which, for the last nine years, he has been the editor and proprietor, and to the publication in the City of Washington of a weekly newspaper with the above title.

The material for this paper will consist, in part of selections or extracts from articles admitted into the Review, but mainly of other original literary, educational, industrial, and miscellaneous matters, including digests of the current events of the day, home and foreign; the proceedings of Congress and the acts of the Government; literary and scientific sketches and essays upon eading and popular topics; biographical sketches of public men; digest of official reports, State and Federal; the state of the markets in the several arge cities; the progress and prospects of crops supply, demand, prices, etc.; the increase of the country as shown by statistics, bringing down those of the National Census always to date

The object will be, through careful editorial management and a 'arge and well-selected correspondence, to establish at the seat of government a Family Newspaper which shall be adapted to the wants of every community; imparting musement and information, and political, only to the extent of maintaining the institutions of the country and defending the rights and sovereignty

The City of Washington, from the advantages which it presents for obtaining material of every kind, through the action of the Smithsonian Institution, the Patent Office, and the National Agricultural Convention, etc., and the several Bureaus and Departments of Government, from its conti guity to the large commercial cities, from the extended, exciting, and all important interests that concentrate upon it, is, perhaps, the most eligible location for such a journal, and ample guarantees of its success have already been received. It will be printed in folio for the convenience of binding, and similar in style to the New York Albion.

GEORGE P. FOX, ew York Metropolitan Tailoring Establishment.

INITED STATES MILITARY AND NAVAL DEPOT. SI Broadway, opposite the Metropolitan

Sir: Allow me the pleasure of placing my name before your notice, at the same time offering you my best services as a Tailor, together with the resources of my store, for the supply of Military and Navy Uniforms, United States Consul and Citizen's Dress.

I am now engaged making uniforms for the Military, Navy, and Marine Corps, also the Revenue, according to the written and printed instructions and official drawings, to the latest regulations, as received by me from the State, Navy, and War Departments, in Washington, D.C. If you should feel disposed to favor me with any orders, you may rest assured of receiving experienced attention and accurate fitting. The very best English and French Cloths, Cassimeres, Gold Lace, Treble Gilt Buttons, &c., &c., all at the lowest possible cost for cash. I have, at very great expense, employed first rate Artists, as Gold Embroiderers, Silk, Moleskin, Beaver Chapeau, Cloth Cap, and General Regimental Ornament Makers; English, French, and American Coat Cutters, Vast Cutters, Pantaloons Cutters. I believe I am doing one of the largest Military and Navy Officers' Clothing and Outfitting business in the United States, and can refer you to many Officers, my customers, attached to the Artillery, Dragoons, Infantry, Ordnance, and Engineers, &c. I am also personally known to many of the Navy Officers attached to ships of war; namely, the North Carolina, Mississippi, Princeton, Powhatan, San Jacinto, St. Lawrence, Brandywine, Vincennes, Vandalia, Congress, Germantown, Independence, Macedonia, Futon, Lexington, Fredonia, Constitution, Cyane, Relief, Perry, Porpoise, including Gentlemen, the Heads of the Executive Departments, Members of both Houses of Congress, also, Ministers Plenipotentiary, Secretaries and Attaches of Legations, the English, French, and other Foreign Military and Navy services.

I have the honor to subscribe misself.

Yours, grateful and others.
